RE-ISSUE

PROPOSED USE OF MIKHAILOV's TELEPHONE (1945)

From: NEW YORK

To: MOSCOW

No: 26

8 Jan. 45

To VIKTOR. [1]

At the PLANT [ZAVOD] [ii] works a secret informer [SO] [a] of the sixth line, MIKHAILOV [iii]. To enable ALBERT [iv] to get in touch with us quickly in cases of emergency we propose to give him MIKHAILOV's telephone number. This proposal VADIM [v] considers unacceptable - he maintains that if a call is made on this number even from the ARSENAL [vi] the KHATA [vii] is allegedly in a position to establish there and then who is making the call. If VADIM is mistaken I would ask all the same [b] for permission to use this telephone number on the following considerations:

1. MIKHAILOV is rarely absent and on Sundays more often than not stays at home[, ] consequently it is easy to get him on the same telephone number at any time.
2. The nature of MIKHAILOV's PLANT work is such that he can be rung up on many plausible pretexts.
3. MIKHAILOV is very careful and conscientious.
4. To give ALBERT our worker's home telephone number is disadvantageous for understandable reasons.

5. ALBERT will need to make use of MIKHAILOV's telephone number only in an extreme emergency.
